Abstract

This paragraph summarizes what you did and the major conclusions and/or major results of your work. It should have all the most important items listed, not just "we will discuss" but "we have shown that greater hoo-hoos are the most critical birds because they eat mosquitoes."

What you learned, what you did, why it is important, what could be done next. (maximum 500-800 words).

Acknowledgements (optional)

Good to thank the outreach program that funded your tuitions
Any special help from folks at Rice University,
Your spouse who put up with your late nights, etc.
